IGNITE RECORD

The ultra-light and comfortable sit harness. IGNITE RECORD offers the feather-light wearing comfort of a sport harness with advantages that come to the fore when worn for tree work, training or competitions, route construction or all kind of industrial areas. RECORD is the only IGNITE harness that is also approved for sports. This flexible wonder of comfort weighs only 900 g and is perfect wherever quick use without a lot of material is needed, such as sports or recreation.

Breathable leg padding provides optimal air circulation. The special features of the basic IGNITE RECORD: The waist harness can be easily expanded with one of the available top parts, with or without chest ascender, at any time, thus expanding its range of uses.

- Ultra-light and comfortable
- For fast work without a lot of material
- Expandable with a top part

Important note: May not be used with top parts from the older RECORD series (G-1114, G-1115).
